DISCOVER THE WORLD CHANGES ITS THAILAND OFFICE

SCOTTSDALE, AZ, Aug. 14, 2017—Discover the World announced it recently changed management of its Thailand office.

“Brian Sinclair-Thompson, our new director in Thailand, has a long history in the country’s travel industry,” said Ian Murray, Discover the World’s executive vice president. “Headquartered in Bangkok, the office will be managed by Sinclair-Thompson, who was with SWISS for more than 15 years as regional station manager.”

This new partner in Thailand is a dynamic airline representation company. In addition to representing leading German passenger charters and scheduled cargo airlines, they offer cargo solutions, ground handling and ramp supervision services.

The Thailand office will continue to service Expedia TAAP, Hertz, Royal Caribbean Cruise Lines, Celestyal Cruises, Caesars Entertainment, bmi regional, Azamara Club Cruises, Celebrity Cruises and Dollar Rent a Car. The new management has exciting plans to further grow the portfolio.

“We believe Thailand will continue to grow and prove its strategic significance especially with the growth of the ASEAN region and the importance of the Mekong Delta,” added Murray.
